HORSE DRAWN CRUISES ALONG THE BEAUTIFUL LLANGOLLEN CANAL

Experience for yourself the pleasure of a horse drawn boat trip on the beautiful Llangollen Canal. Watch the fish swim lazily by your boat as you glide silently along, pulled by one of our powerful horses.

In 1884, Captain Jones started running horse drawn boats along the Llangollen Canal. Using his pension from the White Star Line of 'Titanic' fame he purchased two wooden lifeboats from a liner in Liverpool docks, a couple of horses and an old storage barn by the canal.

So started the 'The Horse Drawn Boats of Llangollen.'

Over 135 years later the horsedrawn trip boats are still running. Today, our purpose built boats offer comfort, protection from the weather and wheelchair access.
