NORTH WALES

SO MUCH TO EXPLORE & DISCOVER...

THERE'S NEVER BEEN A BETTER TIME TO VISIT NORTH WALES.

This Go North Wales Pocket Guide features a range of accommodation establishments and attractions. The freedom of self-catering in cottages or caravans has an appeal all of its own, or if you prefer, bring your own caravan or tent... the choice is yours, there is something for everyone.

North Wales is not just a place to visit, it's a place to explore, discover and re-visit time and time again, it's ease of access makes it the ideal short break or additional holiday destination.

To the west lies Snowdon, the highest peak in England and Wales which dominates a rocky mass of mountains, a magnet for climbers and walkers. An area of outstanding natural beauty, Snowdonia offers much diverse landscapes from the highest mountain ranges, tranquil lakes, fast flowing rivers and a wealth of forest trails to miles of golden sandy beaches on the Llyn Peninsula.

Visit an island by crossing one of the two historical bridges over the Menai Strait to Ynys Mon, the Isle of Anglesey - with its 125 miles of coastline, a paradise of wild flowers and birdlife - not to mention all types of watersports.

To the east, in contrast you will experience a gentler landscape of heather moorlands, green vales and the rolling hills of Wales' Border Counties. Here you can visit one of the many interesting market towns, walk the hills of the Clwydian Range and quiet forest trails or soak up the atmosphere of historic stately homes and gardens.

For families and adults alike we have lively Coastal Resorts offering a wide range of exciting and fun filled attractions, a haven for children of all ages.

Travelling to North Wales has never been easier whether you let the train take the strain, hop on a coach, fly in style or journey by car. If you are travelling from overseas, airports at Manchester and Liverpool are the closest with excellent car hire and rail services to get to your destination.

Once here, there are so many ways to explore, you will be spoilt for choice, so why not visit our website www.gonorthwales.co.uk for more inspiration or call to book your holiday break today on 01248 713177.

A TASTE OF WALES

The Welsh Lovespoon

A handcrafted gift made of a solid block of wood, the tradition of a male admirer crafting a lovespoon for a young woman indicated to the woman's family that he was skilled and capable with his hands. The oldest existing lovespoon in Wales dates back to 1667. Each specific carving on the spoon is symbolic, from the eternal love of the Celtic knot, to the twisted stem indicating togetherness

St David - Patron Saint of Wales

On 1 March each year we celebrate our patron Saint, Dewi Sant or St David who died on that day in 589AD

The Harp

The harp is the only traditional instrument in Wales with an unbroken history up to the present day. It is also the instrument most often cited in Welsh literature through the ages

What's in a Name?

59 letters actually!! In the 19th century a joker was responsible for naming this town in Anglesey (deep breath)

LLANFAIRPWLLGWYNGYLLGOGERYCHWYRNDROBWLLLLANTYSILIOGOGOGOCH

It is the longest name in Europe and the second longest official one word place name in the world

St Dwynwen's Day

This is celebrated in Wales on 25 January each year. But who was St Dwynwen? St Dwynwen is the Welsh patron saint of lovers, which makes her the Welsh equivalent of St Valentin

Welsh National Flag

It took until 1959 for the Welsh national flag to be officially unfurled for the first time. The significance of the dragon in Welsh culture is believed to date back to Arthurian legend when Merlin had a vision of a red dragon (representing native Britons) fighting a white dragon (the Saxon invaders). The use of green and white refer to the colours of the House of Tudor, the 15th century royal family of Welsh origin. The red dragon won the battle just in case you were wondering...

DID YOU KNOW...

- North Wales is home to three of Wales' five Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty including the Lleyn Peninsula, the Clwydian Range and the Isle of Anglesey

Which explains why we're a happy lot here in North Wales. Our fruit and veg are as fresh as the air. Our meat and dairy as health as the grass our herds chew on. Food has rarely tasted this good! But like all good hosts, we like to share. There are just so many great local flavours to tickle the taste buds so why not come and visit and see for yourself.

ISLE OF ANGLESEY

Beyond the mountains of Snowdonia lie two famous bridges across the Menai Strait to the Isle of Anglesey where peaceful lanes wind to lakes, forests and long sandy beaches beside the Irish Sea. Who can resist a stunning stretch of coast. Much of the 125 miles of beautiful coastline has been designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). The island is famed for its history and outstanding natural beauty.

The only way to experience this and everything else Anglesey has to offer is to come and stay. Spend a few nights in an Anglesey hotel or a week in a cottage. Take time to relax into the island's slower pace and be taken in by its easy charm. Whether you're a beach-lover, a watersports enthusiast, a cyclist or an explorer, the Isle of Anglesey will make a memorable impression on you.

Anglesey offers unparalleled beauty, amazing adventures, serious solitude and a warm welcome. Easily accessible, this unique island, with its coastline, varied beaches and historical towns is a superb base for all the family.

For further information on your visit to the Isle of Anglesey please visit our website www.gonorthwales.co.uk or call 01248 713177

SNOWDONIA

With its breath taking beauty and fantastic scenery, Snowdonia boasts the highest range of mountains in England and Wales. The beautiful National Park is fringed by the stunning coastlines of the Llyn Peninsula and Cambrian Coast. In a single day you can hike a peak, sunbathe on a beach, and lose yourself in quiet country lanes between the two.

Enjoy authentic Welsh food at country pubs, rustic cafes or award-winning restaurants. The range of things to do in Snowdonia is equalled by the array of accommodation - from hotels, B&Bs, cottages, guesthouses and inns.

The Llyn Peninsula is unmistakably Wales. There is nowhere else quite like it. With Snowdonia guarding its landward edge it has the feel of an island, and a beautiful one at that. Its beaches come in all flavours - small sandy coves or wide surfing expanses, some with dunes, others with cliffs. Yet more with tiny villages that cling to a hillside or cluster round an old bridge. The Llyn Peninsula's volcanic hills, undulating countryside and coastal paths - including an ancient pilgrim's route - make for a battered map of walking options.

BETWS-Y-COED

THE GATEWAY TO SNOWDONIA...

Together with the neighbouring villages and towns it is a gem of an area, gifted with hidden lakes, cascading waterfalls, historic bridges and serene river havens. This magical setting has a distinctly Alpine feel and is enhanced by the dense Gwydyr Forest in which it nestles. Mountain biking, walking, leisure and adventure activities are all on the doorstep as well as an opportunity to take in the local cultural heritage.

The district provides a stunning and accessible year-round base from which to explore all that North Wales has to offer and the huge choice of accommodation caters for every possible budget and requirement.

Sample the delights of the area in the diverse range of cafes, bistros, restaurants and pubs where locally sourced and often award-winning produce is featured.

Many an hour can be passed browsing the independent shops retailing crafts, clothing, gifts, local produce and art galleries showcasing Welsh artists. The extensive collection of outdoor shops means visitors will never be short of gear for their mountain adventures.

Whatever visitors are seeking, the people of Betws-y-Coed aim to share their wealth of knowledge, information and experience of all the area has to offer.

NORTH WALES COAST

Bustling seaside towns, less than two hours from the England border near Chester with an extensive range of family attractions and miles of sandy beaches - the North Wales Coast is a Welsh Riviera of contrast and charm.

Llandudno is known as the Queen of Welsh Resorts. It's not difficult to see why. Its wide promenade is backed by a graceful crescent of Victorian buildings.

From Llandudno's tranquil atmosphere, with its superb setting, unique Victorian charm and extensive range of accommodation to Colwyn Bay, with its water sports activities. The sheltered harbour at Rhos-on-Sea is ideal for watersports and fishing or a gentle stroll to take in the atmosphere.

All year-round breaks, filled with family fun, good food, great walking, world-class theatre and a full calendar of exciting events - all within easy reach of Snowdonia.

For further information on your visit to the North Wales Coast please visit our website www.gonorthwales.co.uk or call 01248 713177

Snowdon Mountain Railway

Let Snowdon Mountain Railway take you on the journey of a lifetime to the rooftop of Wales. Snowdon, at 1085m dominates the landscape of the Snowdonia National Park. From the first views of the waterfall plunging into the gorge below at the start of the journey, to the breath-taking sights over the sheer edge of Rocky Valley, every moment is memorable.

One of the world's greatest panoramas is revealed at the Summit. Hafod Eryri, the UK's highest visitor centre, has spectacular panoramic views to the valleys below. Venture to the cairn, where on a clear day the views stretch as far as Ireland. From the Summit of the highest Mountain in Wales and England, young and old can embrace the invigorating atmosphere of Eryri - Land of the Eagles.

Trains travel to the Summit May to the end of October (weather permitting) and to Clogwyn ¾ up Snowdon during March and April. Heritage Steam Experience and Traditional Diesel Service available.

Access improved for mobility impaired visitors

WALKING IN NORTH WALES

North Wales was made for walking and hiking!
Mountains, coast, town and country - we have it all.

FISHING NORTH WALES

Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB)

are areas across Britain where the landscape needs protection - we have 3 in North Wales; Clwydian Range and Dee Valley, Llyn and Isle of Anglesey.

Walk the Coast

The Wales Coast Path is 870 miles in total of which 340 miles are in North Wales. The good news is that you don't have to be a committed walker to enjoy our dramatic and varied coastline. You can explore the path in sections, stopping off en-route at one of our historical sites or learn about the area's wildlife and seascape, making the journey both interesting and enjoyable.

Offa's Dyke

This iconic route runs for 177 miles (285km) through the breath-taking borderlands of Wales and England. Be inspired by the stunning views of Snowdonia, the Clwydian Range and the Dee Valley. Soak up the history of ancient hill forts, castles and abbeys.

Pilgrim's Way

A walking route of over 135 miles (218kms) from Basingwerk in North East Wales to Bardsey Island in the North West. Discover the ancient history of Wales hidden in the hillsides or visit a mighty waterfall, rushing streams and holy wells enjoying the wealth of wild flowers and bird life. You can walk the Pilgrim's Way in stages (25 in total) or plan the whole journey over 10 to 15 days.

Mary Jones Walk

In 1800, when she was 15 years old, Mary Jones saved what little money she had for six years to afford to buy a bible and walked barefoot from Llanfihangel-y-Pennant across valleys and around mountains to Bala. By following this linear route, you will walk 28 miles through the spectacular countryside of the old county of Meirionnydd, from an enchanting valley at the foot of Cadair Idris, Llanfihangel-y-Pennant to the shores of Llyn Tegid.

North Wales makes a big impression on visitors with its spectacular views and unparalleled beauty with its range of diverse attractions and activities but we are also a land of lakes, rivers and coastline.

Whether you tackle a lake, reservoir or head to the coast, North Wales has a plethora of exciting fishing destinations, all set in stunning scenery from Game Fishing, Fly Fishing, Sea Fishing, Boat Fishing or Coarse Fishing there is something for every angler.

There are not many sports which combine peaceful surroundings, a chance for some contemplation and also a few thrills. Yes, fishing is one of our top favourites, and North Wales is one of the destinations for freshwater and sea angling, available throughout the year.

For the first time ever the Welsh Federation of Sea Anglers and Conwy County Borough Council welcome the world's top shore anglers to Conwy County for the 35th World Championship for Men and the 26th World Championship for ladies.
