

WELCOME TO GOLF NORTH WALES

It's often said that North Wales offers the best value green fees in Europe. What's the catch? There isn't one. You'll sacrifice nothing in quality - North Wales is home to some world-class Championship links courses, like Royal St David's, Conwy and Nefyn & District Golf Club, which has been compared to Pebble Beach in the USA. And some hidden gems that you'll hope will stay that way. Whatever your standard of golf you'll find courses to enjoy in North Wales. In fact North Wales has over 60 of them, many of them steeped in history.

There's nothing pretentious or pompous about golf in North Wales. We're talking about unspoiled courses at affordable prices. You play at your own pace.

Tee times are readily available, even at the weekends. The courses are never over crowded, so expect a relaxed pace and few hold ups.

Visit North Wales and you'll find friendly welcoming clubs that appreciate your presence and offer great hospitality.

So whether you're coming with family or with your golfing buddies, you can expect a variety of great quality courses and excellent value for money. We believe that Golf in North Wales is what the game should be about - challenge and conviviality, achievement and enjoyment, good competition and great fun.

WHATEVER YOUR STANDARD OF GOLF YOU'LL FIND COURSES TO ENJOY IN NORTH WALES.

As part of this initiative to bring the Golf of North Wales to a wider audience, a unique 3 day Golf Festival has been organised. This year the Festival runs from 5 - 7 April and will include a Stableford Competition at 3 of North Wales' Championship Courses. To enter and be part of this festival please contact golf@nwt.co.uk or call 0845 4505445

NEFYN & DISTRICT GOLF CLUB

Nefyn and District Golf Club can, with some justification, claim to be one of the most featured must-play golf courses in the UK.

Played against the stunning backdrop of the Snowdonia mountain range on one side and Cardigan Bay on the other, this 27 hole Championship course, laid out in three spectacular 9s, boasts a view of the sea from every tee. With tees perched on rocky outcrops, fairways that meander around small bays and greens cut into hillsides, this really is 'gol' on the edge'.
