

The Charms of Wrexham with Easy Public Transport!

ST. GILES' PARISH CHURCH, WREXHAM.

The Tower Climb 135 ft to the top of one of the Seven Wonders of Wales. This magnificent building is a very visible sign of the faith of Christian people over many centuries. View amazing panoramic views of Wrexham and see as far as the Berwyn Hills, the Mersey Estuary and the Cheshire Plains. St Giles Parish Church is not a museum but a place of worship.

WELCOME TO WREXHAM CITY.

The bustling gateway of North Wales that promises an unforgettable adventure filled with history, culture, and endless excitement. Surrounded by picturesque landscapes and brimming with hidden gems, your journey to Wrexham begins with a simple ride on public transport.

VENTURE OUT AND DISCOVER THE TREASURES THAT AWAIT YOU:

Step into the vibrant community hub of Ty Pawb and experience local art and culture firsthand. Dive into a world of discovery at the Xplore Science Discovery Centre, where imagination knows no bounds.

Embark on a stadium tour of the iconic Racecourse and unwind with a refreshing pint at The Turf. Indulge in a taste of tradition at the Wrexham Lager Brewery Shop, where every sip tells a story. St Giles' Cathedral, founded in 1124 by King David I, has been a working church for almost 900 years.

TY PAWB

RACECOURSE

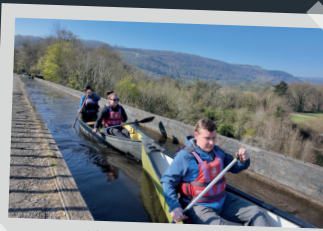

BUT THE ADVENTURE DOESN'T END THERE!

Surrounding Wrexham are even more attractions just waiting to be explored. From the stunning Welsh mountains and tranquil Dee valley which host the Pontcysyllte Aqueduct, Llangollen Canal, Erdigg National Trust, Bangor on Dee Racecourse to name a few.

Start your journey today with a convenient ride on public transport and unlock a world of wonder in North Wales! (Link to website)

EXPLORE THE CEIRIOG VALLEY

A short distance from Wrexham lies the Ceirio Valley, offering a plethora of outdoor activities. From pony trekking to exploring footpaths, fishing along the River Ceirio, to mountain biking in the Berwyn mountains, the valley is a haven for adventure seekers.

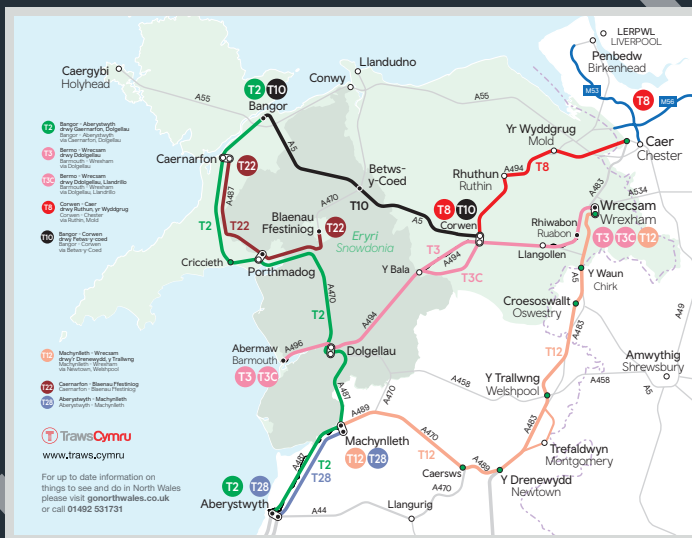

PONTCYSYLTE AQUEDUCT

ERDIGG

WREXHAM LAGER

TRAFNIDIAETH CYMRU
TRANSPORT FOR WALES

TrawsCymru

Inward journey
avantiwestcoast.co.uk
tfw.wales/service-status/timetables

Onward journey
traws.cymru/en/services
arrivabus.co.uk/wales/bus-travel-in-wrexham

Planned timetables are subject to change, so please check the links above for the most up-to-date information before you travel. North Wales Tourism holds no responsibility for timetable changes etc.