

Llandudno Junction to West Shore Beach Llandudno

The Route...

 3.5mile  1hour 20min  Pavement

- 01 Turn left out of the train station and head towards Conway Road A547, slight left onto Conwy Road, go through one roundabout.
- 02 At the second roundabout, take the 1st exit onto New Rd/A546 and continue through the village of Deganwy which is on the shores of the Conwy Estuary between Victorian Llandudno and medieval Conwy, it enjoys a privileged position with stunning views across the water to Conwy Castle and the Isle of Anglesey until you reach Marine Crescent, turn left here.
- 03 Slight left to stay on Marine Crescent, continue on this road for about 1.6 miles. Enroute you will take in the views of Deganwy Marina and the Conwy Estuary passing along the way Quay Hotel & Spa and the grounds of the North Wales Golf Club. Nearing the end of your journey and you will find a character in the classic children's story Alice in Wonderland called The White Rabbit Statue.

- 04 Arrive at West Shore Beach, which lies on the south-western side of North Wales' Llandudno headland. It is less busy than the more developed North Shore and has lovely views over Conwy Bay and out towards Anglesey. At low tide there is a large expanse of golden sand which is suitable for ball games and kitesurfing. From the West Shore you will find beautiful views of the Great Orme too.
