

Wales on a Plate

01

Bodnant Welsh Food Centre is a beautiful stone-built farm set in the heart of the Conwy Valley at the foothills of Snowdonia. The perfect place to eat, sleep and create perfect memories. Bodnant Welsh Food's aim is to have a cookery school that is accessible to everyone. Set in a relaxed and fun environment that can be enjoyed by all of the family. Whether you are a beginner or a budding master chef, there is something for everyone!

Family Cooking Class - make cooking a family activity, this fun and exciting course allows you to cook some yummy meals together as a family.

Pizza Making Workshop - Because most people love pizza this course is fun and easy, involving all the family. Learn from experts how to make the perfect pizza with all your favourite toppings.

02

Rhug Estate Farm Shop is a 12,500-acre organic farm's market, restaurant & drive-thru selling & serving its own goods.

The shop has over 3,000 hand-selected products with a real focus on Welsh, local and organic. Here you'll find a memorable foodie experience at one of the largest organic farms in the UK.

Café Rhug, positioned alongside the Farm Shop, offers all day dining. Their menu has a real focus on using seasonal ingredients from many local suppliers as well as their award-winning fresh Rhug Organic meat.

03

Anglesey Sea Salt / Tŷ Halen, is an award-winning Saltcote and Visitor Centre, a first for Anglesey, Wales and the UK, and lies on the banks of the Menai Strait in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Here you can experience a 'behind the scenes' one-of-a-kind tour which is recommended for anyone interested in salt's place in our history, culture and food. It's what makes Halen Mon Sea Salt the world's finest seasoning.

On site there is a seasonal outdoor café, Tide/Llanw, which serves excellent snacks and a contemporary design-led gift shop.

Wales on a Plate

northwalestourism
twristiaethgogleddcymru

Ariennir gan
Lywodraeth Cymru
Funded by
Welsh Government